

the ACADEMIC FRAMEWORK FORUM

First Quarter Meeting

September 22, 2017, 2:30 p.m.

OHS Media Center

an Introduction to the Academic Framework Forum 2:30 p.m.

Cristian Rios '18 expands on his vision for the Academic Framework Forum and his challenge to the members in the coming year.

the Teaching Assistant Model: a Path to Academic Success Through Individualized Assistance 2:45 p.m.

Cristian Rios '18 presents his ideas for implementing a campus-wide teaching assistant system in the most rigorous courses available, to serve as a support system for students who may believe they are alone in these classes, and to serve as a foundation for expansion into regular-level classes that current peer counseling efforts have not covered.

the Additional Proposals 3:00 p.m.

Additional proposals are presented to the Forum for voting, including:

- Nomination of Hannah Harper '19 to the AFF
- Teaching Assistant Code of Conduct
- New posters

the Public Response 3:05 p.m.

The AFF members and the general public are invited to discuss their own ideas and proposals not on the agenda. OHS teachers and administration have been invited to weigh in on the discussion.
